

Press Release

Date Issued: 12th August 2019

Hamptons International hay-1 Magic Millions Festival of British Eventing a huge success

Leading residential agent Hamptons International was delighted to be a sponsor at the Magic Millions Festival of British Eventing last weekend (2-4th August) in its 16th year of supporting the annual horse trials.

Taking place at Gatcombe Park, home of HRH The Princess Royal, Hamptons enjoyed a VIP lunch at which clients and friends attended. Venue veteran Harry Meade – one of Britain’s leading event riders and longtime friend of Hamptons International – gave an informative update on the eventing world. Continuing much loved tradition, Harry later led a cross country course walk where guests were given an expert glimpse into the skills and techniques used to tackle the championship jumps and fences.

comments: “It’s always a pleasure to attend the Festival of British Eventing at Gatcombe Park, it takes a tremendous amount of skill to do what they do, and it is a wonder to enjoy it with our clients and the 40,000 people who attended over the weekend. We are thrilled that Harry Meade was able to join us again, to run us through the intricacies of the sport.”

The festival hosted five championships over the weekend, the winners included:

- Jonelle Price (NZL) riding Classic Moet won Magic Millions British Open
- Tom McEwen (GBR) riding Dreamaway II won Smith & Williamson British Intermediate Championship
- Francis Whittington (GBR) riding Brother Bertie won Dodson & Horrell British Novice Championship
- Kristina Cook (GBR) riding David Cricket won RoR/NTF Retrained Racehorse Event Horse Championship

- Saskia Davies (GBR) riding Singing Usk won TopSpec Challenge for The Corinthian Cup

Also on offer were food outlets and a shopping village, property experts from Hamptons International providing market advice along with a guess the price game and facepainting which raised money for Cancer Research, Hamptons International's charity partner.
