Hamptons International in Tunbridge Wells Raises £1,900 for Cancer Research, UK

To help celebrate its 150th birthday, Hamptons International has committed to make 2019 its biggest year of fundraising yet. In support of the businesses ongoing commitment to charity partner Cancer Research UK, Hamptons International is proud to introduce “Challenge 150”.

“Challenge 150” is an internal initiative whereby each member of the business has pledged to raise £150 to collectively raise in excess of £150,000 for Cancer Research, UK by the end of the year. To date, Hamptons International has raised almost a quarter of a million pounds for Cancer Research, UK and aims to bring that total to £400,000 by the end of 2019.

For their “Challenge 150” Hamptons International in Tunbridge Wells hosted a “Big Night Out” through which they raised £1,900 from a pub quiz, raffle, dinner & DJ and dancing until 1am. Sankey’s Sea Food Restaurant and Bar on Mount Ephraim provided not only the venue but also fish and Chips, with sponsors including Cripps Pemberton Greenish, Meridian Currency, Fiona Penny Bespoke Home Finders and Colin MacKenzie Property Search. Seventeen local companies kindly offered prizes in the raffle, including a “Forage and Farm Experience” from The Small Holding and wine tasting at Hush Heath. The photos were kindly taken by Lauren Towner.

Emma Johnson, Associate Director at Hamptons International in Tunbridge Wells says: “We’re delighted to have raised £1,900 for Cancer

Research, UK. This should go some way to meet our overall fundraising target of £250,000 for the year. Other fundraising activities that have taken place throughout the Hamptons International network include bake sales, open mic nights, even a sky dive with an abseil down Spinnaker Tower.”
