Hamptons International Acquires Isle of Wight Holiday Lettings Business Home from Home

Leading estate agents, Hamptons International, is pleased to announce the launch of Home from Home, a holiday lettings business on the Isle of Wight, which has been existence for over 30 years. Formerly part of Watson Bull & Porter, Home from Home was acquired by Hamptons International earlier this year and now joins its network of 90 sales and lettings branches in the UK.

For those searching for a family break, somewhere special for a romantic retreat, a modern house or a traditional cottage, Home from Home can help. Home from Home aims to connect holidaymakers with their dream holiday rental as well as assist holiday property owners on the Isle of Wight. Home from Home covers the whole island and properties are available in a wide range of popular locations, including Cowes, Bembridge, Seaview, Sandown, Shanklin, Ventnor and Freshwater.

Lesley Cairns, Managing Director of Hamptons International says: “We are thrilled to have launched Home from Home by Hamptons International and look forward to building on the success the business has already established over the past 30 years.

The Isle of Wight has long been a desirable holiday destination for many and it’s not hard to see why, what with its world-famous Cowes week, plethora of pubs and restaurants and of course its stunning beaches. This acquisition is all the more special as this year marks our 150th year as a business and we are so proud to be growing the Hamptons International family.”

The Home from Home team is headed up by Amira Hyne who has worked for the business for 5 years and brings with her a wealth of experience. Amira is assisted by a team of two other property professionals, both of which have lived on the Isle of Wight for many years and pride themselves on offering clients an exceptional tailored service.

Amira Hyne, Manager of Home from Home by Hamptons International says: “We are delighted to officially be part of Hamptons International and to join the business in its 150th anniversary year.

Having always been renowned for our knowledgeable and friendly local team, we look forward to bringing our reputation as the Isle of Wight’s finest holiday lettings business to the rest of the UK.”
